GLASGOW WEST END BIBLIOGRAPHY

PART 1:
WEST END HISTORY AND GLASGOW ARCHITECTURE

PART 2:
FICTION SET IN GLASGOW’S WEST END

October 2012
The Friends of Glasgow West

We are a well-established heritage group with over 160 members and a large number of contacts. Our objectives are to preserve and promote, the outstanding Victorian and Edwardian built heritage in Glasgow’s West End, through a wide range of activities including an interest in planning applications and high quality development, the West End Lectures, guided walks and several publications including Gordon Urquhart’s heritage trails.

The Bibliography

This updated Bibliography provides pointers to increase your knowledge and enjoyment of Glasgow’s West End, via the works of many authors inspired to put pen to paper about this special part of the city.

Acknowledgements

Firstly, Helen Cameron of Friends of Glasgow West deserves our grateful thanks for thoughtful consideration of the contents and categories. She updated the list, checked the details of all the books, and suggested the inclusion of a fiction section. Laura Barnet assisted by converting the master list into electronic format.

Carol MacLaren, Hillhead Library Supervisor provided information on where the publications may be accessed in Glasgow Libraries ie the Mitchell Library (ML), Hillhead Library (HH), or in various lending libraries (var).

Finally, Cathy Kinnear, of Hyndland Bookshop, Hyndland Road kindly provided the detail on whether each book is currently in print.

We hope you find this Bibliography useful!

CRIME NOVELS SET IN GLASGOW

There are far too many of these to include in this short bibliography!

They can easily be found online, however, using a website such as “Books From Scotland”, and selecting Glasgow + Crime + Novels.
